Description

Louis XV Provincial Walnut Snack Table - Late 18th/Early 19th Century. Charming small Louis XV provincial snack table in solid walnut, dating from the late 18th to early 19th century. The piece rests on four cabriole legs and features a shaped apron, typical of the regional Louis XV style. It opens with a sliding door with vertical slats, a traditional feature often found in Eastern France. Beautiful antique patina, sound and authentic piece, with normal signs of wear for its age. Good overall condition, with wear consistent with age. Delivery within mainland France EUR80. Contact us for more information.
