Description

This charming small console table, crafted from mahogany on all sides, is ideal for placing in the center of a room, where it will prove useful for enjoying tea or supporting a pretty lamp at the end of a sofa. With its clean lines, X-shaped legs connected by an ornately turned stretcher, a practical drawer on the front (also beautiful inside), and its lovely original dark gray porphyry marble top, this piece is made of fine Cuban mahogany with a dark patina and finished with a French polish on both solid and veneered wood. This elegant and functional piece has it all. In pure First Empire style, dating from the 19th century, this beautiful decorative element will captivate with its functionality and refined classic elegance; its proportions allow it to be easily placed in the living room as a console or side
