Description

Antique patinated bronze sculpture dating from the late 19th century. Realistic depiction of a harvester in the fields. Work by the artist Jean Garnier. Golden-brown patina with very fine chasing. 18.5 cm high. Good condition. Jean Garnier (1853-1910) was a French sculptor specializing in small and medium-sized decorative bronzes. He distinguished himself with his realistic depictions of scenes from daily life, workers, peasants, and ordinary people. His work, highly regarded at the end of the 19th century, remains sought after for the quality of its patina and the fineness of its details.
