Description

Refined carved walnut screen with painted canneté glass windows. The screen features highly distinctive and refined carvings, which are geometric and guilloché, while the upper section features floral garlands and fantastical animals. Further enhancing the elegance are the paintings on the glass, which depict various flowers, including calla lilies, roses, and poppies. The screen also features the artist's signature, Luigi Niccolai Lazzarini, a Florentine painter, on the bottom of the central glass. Please note that the screen requires minor restoration work, involving the joins. This is an object of great taste and class, capable of elegantly furnishing any space.
