Description

Elegant drop-down chest of drawers veneered in walnut burl and inlaid with fruitwood. The chest of drawers has a linear shape, with bracket feet and a hinged top. The geometric inlays on the front, sides, drawer, and top lend a refined touch. The chest of drawers features a hinged top with sliding supports, containing six small drawers and a secret compartment containing four additional hidden drawers. The chest also features three ergonomic drawers for storing objects, which open with bronze pulls. This is a tasteful and refined chest of drawers, capable of furnishing any space with class. Lombardy manufacture (Lombardy, Italy) from the Louis XIV period, around the end of the 17th century. Dimensions: H x W x D 104 x 117 x 57cm
