Description

This elegant pair of side tables from the 1960s/1970s captures the sophistication of Italian mid-century modern design. Crafted in solid wood with a warm natural finish, each piece features two drawers adorned with Turquoise Murano glass fronts -- a luxurious and luminous material that instantly elevates the composition. Murano glass, renowned for its exceptional clarity, rich color, and artisanal craftsmanship, brings a refined and decorative dimension to the clean geometry of the wooden structure. The ribbed brass oval handles are a distinctive and rare detail, adding both texture and visual rhythm. The gracefully tapered legs, emblematic of the period, lend the tables an elegant, sculptural stance. Combining warmth, light, and balance, this pair complements a wide
