Description

According to Jules Leleu: a rare Art Deco marquetry sideboard circa 1930. This piece can serve as a room divider as it is finished on all sides and opens at the front with two doors. The marquetry features a diamond pattern. It has tapered legs with gilt bronze bases and a shelf in the left section. The marquetry is present on all sides of the piece, allowing it to be used as an extension of a sofa or as a room divider. It needs waxing. H70 x W113 x D33 cm
