

Allegory Of Labour, Bronze Sculpture By Ferdinand Luegerth (austrian 1885-1915)

2 500 EUR

Signature : Ferdinand Luegerth

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Width : 25,5

Height : 56

Description

A classical bronze female figure holding a book and a laurel branch as an allegory of labor was created by the renowned Austrian sculptor Ferdinand Luegerth (1885-1915), who lived and worked in Vienna. Inscription: Signed on the base Ferd. Luegerth and marked "AR," by the famous Viennese foundry "Arthur Rubinstein"; bronze, dark brown patina. The base is inscribed in Latin "Labori Laurus!" Technique: Bronze and patina. Measurements: H. 56 cm, base 25.5 x 18 cm. Condition: In good condition, a minimal trace of wear is visible where the left hand was articulated to the body, a few insignificant patina scratches on the back of the figure.

Dealer

Alte Kunst

Fine Arts 17th - early 20th centuries

Tel : 004315137918

Mobile : 00436642605164

Fax : 004315137918

Spiegelgasse 21

Vienna 1010