Description

This unusual and amusing brooch depicts a griffon dog's head in repoussé silver, painted in the style of Viennese bronzes. The motif is attached by two rivets to a vermeil plate supporting the fully functional C-shaped clasp. Partial, illegible hallmarks on the clasp: Maker's mark in a lozenge, Boar's head (most likely). Minor wear to the polychromy on the most prominent areas. Excellent condition, France, late 19th century, circa 1880. Diameter 2.5 cm, Weight 5 g
