Description

This large, carved and waxed walnut angel head is distinguished by its delicate smile framed by plump cheeks, its wide eyes, its flowing hair, and its outstretched wings, all of which lend it considerable charm and make it both lifelike and decorative. The timeless nature of this sculpture allows it to find its place in both classic and contemporary interiors. This large sculpture is almost entirely carved from a single piece of walnut (the head and part of the wings are carved from a single block). Good condition, with a few filled cracks (visible in the photos). Shipping within mainland France is EUR20; for other destinations, please contact me for a precise shipping quote.
