Description

Ghom Silk Rug - Exceptional Machine-Made (Iran) Discover a masterpiece of precision and refinement: this Ghom silk rug, made in Iran using a very high-quality machine-made process, offers such remarkable fineness and finish that it easily rivals hand-knotted pieces. Its highly complex central rosette motif is enhanced by a subtle harmony of deep blues, golden beiges, and warm browns. The floral details, repeated with perfect regularity, testify to Iranian craftsmanship, which, even in machine production, maintains an exceptional level of excellence. Thanks to its luminous silk and impressive density, this rug has a soft and silky feel, worthy of the finest Ghom silks. An incomparable sheen that subtly changes depending on the light and the angle of the rug.
