Description

This charming hinged keepsake locket is crafted in yellow gold. Shaped like a clover, it is set with three round cabochons of bull's-eye agate, the intersections adorned with repoussé and engraved gold clover motifs. A rose-cut diamond graces the center. A ribbed triangular gold bail allows for hanging. On the back, a hinged triangular compartment can hold a keepsake from a loved one. Unmarked, it has been tested to 14 carats using a touchstone. Note: Slight deformation and a notch to the cupule of the right-hand cabochon. A lucky charm in very good condition, Victorian period, circa 1860. Height 3.6 cm, width 2.3 cm. Weight 9 g.
