Description

Large coat of arms featuring a shield with a crowned and displayed eagle, accompanied at the base by a fleur-de-lis. Beautiful oak carving signed on the reverse E. Valadié and dating from the late 19th or early 20th century. The carving is finely detailed, particularly the plumage and head of the eagle, as well as the fleur-de-lis. There are a few cracks visible in the photos, but they do not penetrate the wood.
