Description

DescriptionThis dynamic mixed-media painting by Jaume Genovart presents a striking interplay of geometric precision and gestural abstraction. Layers of vivid color--burnt orange, crimson, turquoise, and deep violet--are structured into angular planes intersected by calligraphic forms and architectural lines. Genovart's mastery of rhythm and spatial tension reflects his association with the Pintura-pintura and New Abstraction movements of late twentieth-century Catalonia, where emphasis was placed on the materiality and language of painting itself. The surface shows deliberate contrasts between textured pigment and linear draftsmanship, producing a dialogue between form and gesture that feels both controlled and improvisational. The composition's gradient from dark, mechanical lower tones to
