

Restoration Period Marquetry Pedestal Table - Charles X

490 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Wood marquetry

Height : 71 cm plateau ouvert

Description

A gueridon table with a tilting octagonal top, inlaid in various wood species with a radiating pattern, featuring alternating stars, lozenges, and crown-like circles around the edge. The wood is of fine quality. A few woodworm holes do not detract from the beauty of this piece. The wood is sound. There are a few minor surface scratches on the top. The hexagonal base is mahogany veneer, and the legs are tripod. Restoration period, Charles X, circa 1825-1830. Height of the tilted top: 113 cm. Height when open: 71 cm. Octagonal top: 78 cm diagonal.
