Description

Blown glass purron, Moussans glassworks, mid-19th century. This light green glass purron is characteristic of the production of these Languedoc glassworks. There were several types of purrons; this one is a "Catalan" purron, also known as a "Spanish" or "Perpignan" purron. These containers, traditionally used for wine to be drunk "à la régalade" , could also hold water or oil. Height: 15 cm
