Description

Solid silver (950/1000) tulip cup. Tulip shape, typical of late 18th - early 19th century production. Base with fine fluting, very typical of Empire silverware. Monogram engraved within a wreath of leaves, neoclassical style. - Rooster hallmark with head turned left, wings open - hexagonal frame and number 1. First standard hallmark, period 1798-1809, guaranteeing the silver at 950/1000. - Guarantee hallmark - circular frame, number 85, period 1798-1809. - Goldsmith's hallmark. Clearly visible but not identified in my database; possibly Jean Nicolas Soret, Parisian goldsmith specializing in hollow pieces (cups, goblets, salt cellars, sugar bowls, etc.). Registered in Paris between 1798 and 1812. Note: very slight deformation at the neck. Weight: 145g. Height: 11cm. Diameter at the
