Description

An exceptional and rare Louis XIV style walnut wardrobe, embellished with burr and burl wood panels. Our wardrobe is adorned with exquisite marquetry stringing throughout. The front opens with two large doors revealing three shelves, one of which has a large transverse drawer. The sides are composed of three panels, while the central panel features a charming marquetry motif. The back panels have been restored, and the lock has been replaced. A magnificent piece of fine craftsmanship from the late 18th century, likely originating from eastern Moselle. Dimensions: Height 225 cm, Length 176 cm to the cornice, Depth 74 cm to the cornice.
