Description

An elegant pair of 20th-century Art Deco bedside tables, crafted from Rio rosewood, a precious wood prized for its deep grain and natural warmth. Each table features a delicately contrasting light wood front, enhanced by a varnish that reveals the richness of the wood fibers. The design, typical of the Art Deco period, combines clean lines and balanced proportions. The doors are adorned with gilt brass handles, adding a refined and luminous touch. While unsigned, the two pieces demonstrate true craftsmanship in woodworking. Their compact size and timeless style make them perfect additions to an elegant bedroom or an interior that blends vintage and contemporary elements.
