Description

A nighttime service often placed on the bedside table, used for quenching thirst at night or while bedridden in case of illness. The glass acts as a stopper thanks to the collar on the carafe, eliminating the need to remove a stopper and worry about where to put it. Simply take the carafe, remove the glass, place it on the saucer, and pour. The entire set is in good condition and complete. Shipping is possible; careful, reinforced packaging, registered mail with signature confirmation, insurance, and online tracking via tracking number (flat shipping fee applies).
