

Borghese Gladiator, Large Size, 19th Century

1 400 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Copper

Width : 40

Height : 48

Depth : 30

Description

Large and beautiful sculpture in copper alloy with a nuanced brown patina, representing the Borghese gladiator. Hellenistic sculpture which actually represents a warrior fighting and whose author is Agasias of Ephesus, it was preserved by the Borghese family in the 17th and 18th centuries. It was acquired by Emperor Napoleon I in 1807 and is today exhibited at the Louvre Museum. 19th century. Very good condition.

Dealer

Cléry Antiques

18th century furnitures and fine art objects

Tel : 0689602398

Mobile : 06 89 60 23 98

86 rue de Cléry

Paris 75002