Description

Large Wooden Bowl or Centerpiece - 1970s Work. This large bowl is carved from a single block of wood and features a flared base adorned with broad tool marks, typical of 1970s craftsmanship. The circular top is slightly concave and boasts a beautiful, warm patina. A side handle, seamlessly integrated into the wood, enhances the form and lends it a sculptural dimension. An ideal decorative piece as a centerpiece, catchall, or collectible in a vintage, brutalist, or handcrafted setting. Period: 1970s. Material: Wood. Style: Brutalist / 1970s Craft. Condition: Good overall condition, slight wear consistent with age, original patina. Height: Shipping: Carefully packaged - delivery available.
