Description

Second beautiful plate from the Saint Corentin service, from the early years of the Keraluc workshop in Quimper, decorated by Pierre Toulhoat around 1948, at the very beginning of his collaboration with Victor Lucas. The decoration depicts another episode from the Legend of Saint Corentin. Polychrome decoration, beautiful circular inscription: "Corentin had a miraculous fish in his fountain; he cut a slice of it every day for his meal." 20 cm square. In very good condition. A rare piece.
