Description

René Lalique (1860-1945) - "Dandelion"
Bowl/Salad Bowl (1921) Superb bowl/salad bowl in pressed-molded glass, partially patinated, "Dandelion" pattern, created in 1921 by René Lalique. The exquisitely detailed decoration depicts stylized dandelion leaves radiating from the center, alternating satin and transparent sections, in the purest Art Deco style. The piece is signed on the base, a period signature corresponding to the first productions of this pattern. These examples, made at the beginning of the Wingens-sur-Moder glassworks, are now highly sought after. Dimensions:- Diameter: 24 cm- Height: 9 cm Condition: Very good overall condition, no cracks or repairs, with slight, normal signs of wear. An elegant, authentic model that perfectly represents Lalique's craftsmanship
