Description

An imposing, striking Empire fireplace, named 'Pattes de Lion' or 'Lions Paws'. Very nicely carved in subdued Carrara marble. This Carrara has a Statuary quality, which adds a distinct shine and raffinée. (No cold bleu or cold grey veins in this marble.) Fireplace was found in an important Maison Maître in Brussels. Comparing the execution of this Lions Paws to others: The sculpture works on this fireplace are above average. Can be delivered with a Ormolu-bronze for mounting on the frieze, if you like. The 'interior-photo' is a perfect impression of this fireplace. Also in our stock: Foyertiles refractorie. Worldwide shipping. Delivery in Europe ca be done by Antique Fireplaces First: 'In House Delivery'.
