Description

COD 0753 Pair of late 18th-century Italian wall lights. Lighting in Louis XV style, carved, lacquered, gilded, and silvered, beautifully designed and feature attractive furnishings. The mirrors are non-original, replaced during restoration in the 20th century. Excellently proportioned, these wall lights can easily be placed in various locations around the home, ideal for antique dealers and interior decorators. The wall lights come complete with detachable iron arms, each holding two candles (see photo). They have a beautiful patina, are structurally sound, and are in good condition. As each of our products it will be accompanied by a certificate of authenticity and guarantee with photographic documentation.
