Description

A still life depicting a ewer, a knife in a richly ornamented sheath, a silver tray with scalloped edges, a rose-colored purse, and a tartan cylindrical case, resting on the edge of a Louis XV commode. The scene is framed within an arched shape on a rectangular wooden panel. A harmony of warm, predominantly orange colors contrasts with an olive-green background, demonstrating a masterful use of complementary hues. The brushwork is precise and captivating. A few minor imperfections and chips are visible in the photographs.
