Description

Elegant pair of oval paintings, created in pastel on paper and framed in carved, gilded wood.

The exquisite frames, adorned with ribbons at the top, house two portraits of two women against a landscape backdrop. Both women are depicted in profile, with their faces turned three-quarters; one is older, wearing a black dress embellished with jewels, while the other, younger, wears a dress adorned with roses and sports a distinctive Art Nouveau hairstyle, with her hair tied back.

These are two highly prized paintings, admired for their technique and stylistic rendering, highlighted by the attention to detail, capable of
