Description

Rare French cast-iron fireplace overmantel dating to the second half of the 19th century, crafted in full Napoleon III style. Richly decorated with pierced scrollwork, architectural elements, and three elegant cherub heads, this piece likely comes from a foundry in the Lorraine/Alsace region.

Originally placed above the fireplace opening, it served as a decorative architectural element enhancing the monumentality of the hearth.

With its untouched patina and impressive detail, it is perfect for classic interiors, industrial lofts, restoration projects, or as a sculptural decorative piece.
