Description

A very large 19th-century painting depicting two children with bunches of grapes. A magnificent painting that has retained all its original colors and is in excellent condition. Monogram on the right side of the work: C S. Original giltwood and stucco frame in very good condition, regilded during the Napoleon III period. A rare and remarkable piece due to the quality of its execution and the subject matter of children with bunches of grapes. A very decorative and enchanting painting that will occupy a prominent and certainly noticeable place in a beautiful interior. Delivery possible in France and worldwide by specialized carrier. The painting can also be collected in person at the Avallrich estate, Montescot 66200, France (tel. +33 6 11 14 25 33) or at my stand at the Montpellier Cipolat
