Exhibition labels on the back.Original hammered and embossed copper frameExhibitions:- Tourcoing, Palais des Beaux-Arts, date unknown- Galerie Georges Petit, 26 April to 10 May 1907, no. 67, titled "The second-hand dealer's shop"Albert Lechat, a painter from the north of France, mainly depicted the landscapes of his region and the towns he passed through. In this way, we find views of Montreuil-sur-Mer, seascapes, views of Berck and of course Arras like our work. The technique of gouache watercolor, very pure and which preserves all its light over time, allows our small work to immerse us in the beginning of the 20th
