Giltwood and Marble Center Table - Louis XVI Style, Napoleon III Period. Large oval center table in carved and giltwood, made in the 19th century in the Louis XVI style. The top is made of light gray veined marble, set within a molded border. The apron features rich decoration composed of a frieze of rosettes, floral motifs, and foliate scrolls. At the four corners are remarkable carved goat heads, an emblematic motif inspired by Antiquity and frequently used in the Louis XVI style. It rests on four tapered legs, decorated with acanthus leaves. The legs are joined by an elegant X-shaped stretcher, finely molded and centered by a turned, cassollette-shaped element, providing stability and refinement. Antique gilding with a warm patina, showing some minor wear consistent with age.
