Description

Empire style mantel clock set, Napoleon III period - Cupid in a chariot drawn by a lion, patinated bronze and green marble. The clock is accompanied by two matching five-armed candelabra. The set is made of patinated and gilt bronze, richly chased, resting on a very fine veined green marble base. The two matching candelabra complete the composition: green marble stems, patinated bronze arms, and finely crafted decoration. The clock measures 43.5 cm long, 15 cm deep, and 45.5 cm high. The candelabra are 57 cm high.
