Description

COD 11411English sideboard from the early 20th century. Three-door cabinet, carved and inlaid in walnut, burl, ebonized wood, rosewood, maple, and fruitwood. The three-door sideboard is of excellent capacity, with a good-sized wooden top, showing some signs of wear (see photo).The cabinet features a central door inlaid with floral motifs, and curved side doors with inset glass (see photo). The sideboard is of excellent proportions, finely adorned with bronze and gilded and chiseled brass friezes. The sideboard comes with one key; the left side door lock is not working. Structurally sound and solid, overall in good condition.As each of our products it will be accompanied by a certificate of authenticity and guarantee with photographic documentation.
