Description

Silk and Linen Door Curtain or Panel - 19th Century. This elegant antique door curtain, dating from the 19th century, is made of silk with soft moss-green highlights and subtly adorned with a woven natural linen design. The panel is lined, in good condition, and features attractive folds at the top, evidence of its original installation. Two sides are delicately trimmed with tasseled braid, adding a touch of charm and authenticity. A few wooden rings are also present. This rare piece could adorn a doorway, create an elegant room divider, enhance a bed canopy, or serve as a wall hanging in a refined setting. Dimensions: 305 cm x 124 cm. Ref: 051025
