Oil on Canvas - Windmill - Early 20th Century. Charming oil on canvas depicting a windmill standing on a sandy hill under a clear sky. The highly naturalistic composition highlights the mill's architecture, its sails, its rear mechanism, and the outbuildings. The painter demonstrates a beautiful sense of light and precise realism in the rendering of textures: the mill's plaster, the wood of the sails, the dry vegetation, and the terrain's relief. A beautiful rural scene from the early 20th century, typical of naturalistic landscape painting. A decorative, authentic, and luminous painting, evoking the charm of the countryside of yesteryear and the heritage of windmills. Period: Early 20th century. Technique: Oil on canvas.
