Silver Rivière Necklace With Green And Sparkling Crystals, 19th Century

330 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Sterling silver

Length : 40cm

Description

This lovely, delicate silver rivière necklace features 20 millegrain-set motifs of open-backed, emerald-colored oval crystals, each framed by two white brilliant-cut rhinestones set in a lanceolate mount. The central motif holds a more ornate, teardrop-shaped pendant of the same design. It has a fully functional, invisible snap clasp. The silver is unmarked and has been tested with a touchstone. In excellent condition, with no wear or missing stones, the pieces are beautifully sparkling! 19th century, circa 1890. Length: 40cm (choker style). Weight: 17g
