Description

Watercolor on paper by the artist René Duvillier (1919-2002), framed. A 20th-century French artist, Duvillier constructed a unique universe, marked by a poetic sensibility and a fascination with astrology. This passion permeates much of his work: zodiac signs, constellations, and celestial symbols appear regularly in his gouaches. His luminous and meticulously structured compositions blend human figures, stellar motifs, and imaginary architectures. Duvillier sought to make the invisible visible, exploring the links between destiny, character, and astral influences. His vibrant palette, precise outlines, and taste for graphic balance give his works an immediately recognizable visual power. At the crossroads of modernism and an esoteric imagination, Duvillier offers a personal
