

Charles Mérite - Pair Of Crystal And Sterling Silver Ewers

3 600 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Height : 24 cm

Description

A lovely pair of 19th-century crystal and sterling silver ewers. The spherical crystal body is encircled by an openwork mount decorated with foliate scrolls and flowers. The neck is adorned with a frieze of acanthus leaves, extending into a finely molded spout. The twisted handle terminates in foliate scrolls. The circular base is decorated with a frieze of stylized palmettes. Silver hallmark: boar. Maker: Charles Mérite, active between 1869 and 1892. He received medals at the Universal Exhibitions of 1878, silver in 1889, and gold in 1889. Height: 24 cm

Dealer

Alexis Allegro

Antique & Modern Silverware

Mobile : +33 (0)6 75 44 26 43

Marché Serpette, allée 2 stand 8. 110 rue des Rosiers
Saint-Ouen 93400