Description

A large and imposing stylized floral vase in the Art Deco style, circa 1930, made of translucent smoked cristal by master glassmaker Daum in Nancy. Its wide, corolla-shaped opening rests on a footed base. The vegetal decoration depicts a flower opening with alternating acid-etched motifs and broad veins, a subtle interplay between smooth and scratched areas that demonstrates the glassmaker's mastery. Signed on base: Daum Nancy, Cross of Lorraine. Very good condition, with a few discreet bubbles. Height: 16,9". Neck diameter: 13,2". Base diameter: 5,3".
