Description

[ART] - Le Charivari, from November 15, 1841 to March 31, 1842. Paris, At the magazine's offices, 1841-1842; folio, approximately 500 pp., half brown calf binding, smooth spine, marbled edges. Numerous plates by Honoré Daumier. An essential 19th-century magazine, its most notable authors included Taxile Delord and Agenor Altaroche, and its most prominent caricaturists included Gavarni, Philipon, Nadar, Gustave Doré, Henri Rochefort, Cham, and Honoré Daumier. With declining readership, the magazine ceased publication in 1937, shortly after being one of the periodicals involved in a smear campaign against Roger Salengro. A few pages at the beginning of the volume require restoration.
