Description

A very interesting 36-page register, measuring 40 cm x 28 cm, from the 16th century, notably concerning the Cize tax and various entry taxes in the towns and ports of several cities in the Basque Country and the Landes region. It is printed on heavy paper, with several translations marked in the margins. A very rare and interesting document on the history of the Basque Country and the Landes. This document pertains to the reign of Francis I (1494-1547), of the Capetian dynasty. From a private collection.
