Description

This Flemish Still Life antique painting is an oil on panel work dating from the late 19th century, presented in an original gilded frame decorated with genuine gold leaf. The artwork depicts a refined composition of objects arranged on a table covered with a folded white cloth. The elements are balanced with great harmony and attention to detail: in the foreground lies a round loaf of bread on a dark metal plate. Behind it, we can see a bunch of light grapes, a rounded glass filled with red wine, and a delicate transparent blue goblet. To the right, a golden metallic cup brings a touch of light and luxury to the scene. This antique oil painting shows remarkable technical mastery in the rendering of surfaces -- glass, metal, and fabric are painted with impressive realism and a keen sensitivity to light. The still
