Description

This signed oil painting presents a high-quality still life aligned with the traditions of Old Master realism, featuring a woven basket filled with seasonal vegetables arranged with clarity and deliberate balance. The composition includes a deeply modelled pumpkin, crisp turnips, cauliflower, red onions, and a dense cluster of purple kale, each described through refined tonal transitions and controlled, layered brushwork. The surface displays a subtle interplay of light and shadow that enhances the material presence of every form, while the warm ochre background--built through scumbled textures and softly weathered passages--recalls classical studio settings. The painting's measured chromatic range, compositional stability, and clear understanding of volumetric structure
