Description

A unique and elegant double-framed drawing, recto and verso, featuring two 18th-century drawings. Each sheet depicts a full-length figure in the style of Watteau: on one side, a gentleman in a tricorne hat, drawn in black chalk; on the other, a musician in red chalk. In good overall condition, with some foxing visible under strong light, as shown in the photographs. The drawings are executed with a confident and precise hand, demonstrating a good understanding of volume and shading. The frame is of fine quality. Overall dimensions: 60 x 43 cm. Image size: 42 x 24 cm.
