Description

Large 47 cm vase with a flattened body and small flared rim, produced by Le Verre Français in the early 1920s.
Multilayered acid-etched glass with a milky white background and a palette ranging from deep blue to warm orange.
This piece combines Art Nouveau and early Art Deco influences.
The so-called "Figues" décor features rising stems bearing stylised fruits, completed by a geometric pattern around the base.
Signature: acid-engraved "Le Verre Français" on the lower body, with the tricolour glass medallion.
Condition: Very good condition.
Dimensions: Height: 47 cm
Period: 1922-1924
