Description

Luminous bowl by Paul Nicolas with a rose décor, circa 1920-1922. Elegant bowl with a rounded body raised on a circular foot. Multilayered acid-etched glass with a naturalistic décor of blooming roses and finely veined leaves. The mottled red-on-cream background, characteristic of the artist's early independent work, creates a subtle contrast with the darker layers. A representative example of the style developed by Paul Nicolas, recalling his formative years at Gallé. Signature: "Paul Nicolas" engraved on the foot Condition: Very good condition Dimensions: Height: 15 cm Period: 1920-1922 Reference: 82
