

Chantilly Lace In Black Silk Thread - For The Lining Of A Round Dress Or Crinoline - Late 19th Cent

220 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Laces

Description

Long and wide Chantilly lace flounce in silk thread, with a geometric and floral design. Machine-made. Very fine and exceptionally lightweight lace, almost as light as grenadine silk. Note a small snag approximately 1 cm in diameter and a loose thread located just below it, both situated 99 cm from a side edge. The lace is in very good condition throughout, with no weakness under tension or discoloration. Unwashed (we do not wash black or precious laces).
