Description

This ostrich egg is entirely covered in 24-karat gold leaf, giving it a luminous and almost sacred presence. The surface is punctuated with small protrusions of material, a deliberately irregular pattern that lends a raw and primitive quality, like a precious talisman from another era. Presented on a gilded wooden cube, the piece asserts a sculptural aesthetic, refined yet raw, poised between luxury and archaism. This work by Mr. and Mrs. T, whose signature style is evident in this blend of mineral elements, is truly remarkable.
