Description

A charming pair of reverse glass paintings from the mid-18th century, Augsburg school, depicting a gallant scene in the style of Watteau or Fragonard. The two gouaches form a pair, and the scene appears to take place in a park: a young woman accompanied by her maid seems captivated by the charm of a young man passing nearby. The two giltwood frames with dentil decoration date from the early 20th century. There are some minor paint losses and small alterations due to age. A charming, decorative, and easy-to-display pair. Dimensions: 24 cm high by 17.5 cm wide. We ship worldwide; please contact us for a precise quote.
